and headed 'Then and Now 2020'

6. The images submitted may be taken at any time or location
7. Each author may submit 5 works in each category. Sets, consisting of no more than 6 images in each, are treated as a single work. One author may only make one submission. The jury reserves the right to re-edit the sets, in particular to choose single images for the purpose of the exhibition. The jury may also award single images from particular sets.
8. The sets of images submitted for the competition must be arranged in the order of presentation and this information along with the image orientation must be indicated on the reverse of each image.
9. The minimum size of the images submitted is 13x18cm (size of the image itself). The maximum size of the images submitted is 50x70cm. The maximum size of the paper the image is printed on is 70x100cm. Prints submitted for the competition must be unframed and should not be presented in the form of a passe-partout but as a loose sheet.
10. The prints may be entered in two categories:

Pinhole photography

In this category only photographs taken by means of camera obscura are admissible.

In this category only handmade prints made by means of manual photographic processes such as: ambrotype, calotype, platinotype, palladotype, cyanotype, Vandyke brownprint, aurotype, orotone, saltprint (talbotype), albumen print, gum bichromate, woodburytype, argentotype, argyrotpe, cuprotype, oilprint, bromoil, carbon transfer, carbro, caseinotype, liquid emulsion, transfers and lifts including polaroid transfer and not limited to the above. Mixed techniques and the photographer's own techniques are also admissible. The prints may be made both from traditional film negative and from negatives printed from digital files.

Prints using factory made silver gelatine papers as well as any form of digital prints and photographic lab made prints are not admissible in this category.

11. Each participant must pay a non refundable entry fee of 10 euros payable to:
